EXOTICS AND RETROSPECTIVES.

By LAFCADIO HEARN, Lecturer on English Literature in the Imperial University, Tokio; author of "Out of the East," etc. Illustrated. 16mo, cloth, gilt top, $2.00.

This is a new collection of essays, only one having appeared in print before. As in Mr. Hearn's previous volumes, most of the topics are Japanese.

CONTENTS: Exotics—Fuji-no-yama; Insect-Musicians; A Question in the Zen Texts; Buddhist Literature of the Dead; Frogs; Of Moon Desire. Retrospectives—I. First Impressions; II. Beauty is Memory; III. Sadness in Beauty; IV. Parfum de Jeunesse; V. Azure Psychology; VI. A Serenade; VII. A Red Sunset; VIII. Frisson; IX. Vespertina Cognition; X. The Eternal Haunters.

ALPHONSE DAUDET.

The Memoir by his son, LÉON DAUDET. To which is added "The Daudet Family" (Mon Frère et Moi), by ERNEST DAUDET. Translated by CHARLES DE KAY. With frontispiece portrait. 12mo, cloth, gilt, $1.50.

This new life of Alphonse Daudet, the greatest French writer of recent times, is published and copyrighted in America and England by a special arrangement with the Daudet family. The close intercourse that Léon Daudet enjoyed with his father has enabled him to deal intimately with Daudet's home-life as well as with his works.

THE MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY,

And Other Stories. Being VOLUME I. of the Collected Works of EDWARD EVERETT HALE. 12mo, cloth, gilt, $1.50.

This new edition of the writings of Dr. Hale is issued under the supervision of the author, and will comprise ten volumes. One or more volumes will appear every month. Volume II., now in preparation, is entitled "In His Name and Christmas stories."

THE MAJOR TACTICS OF CHESS.

A Treatise on Evolutions. By FRANKLIN K. YOUNG. 8vo, cloth, gilt, $2.50.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

The Minor Tactics of Chess. | The Grand Tactics of Chess.

The Bookman

"Still Moving Up."

December was the most successful month, financially, in the history of the BOOKMAN.

The advertising was greater than ever before, the number of subscriptions received more than a third greater, while the cash receipts were 60 per cent. more than in December, '97, and much larger than in any previous month since the beginning of the BOOKMAN in February, '95.

This is the more noteworthy, as the competition in the field of literary monthlies has been increased. The BOOKMAN is to-day more firmly established, and more successful in every way, than ever before.

The circulation averages 13,500 copies.

The number of illustrations in the BOOKMAN has been greatly increased. The January number (usually a small issue with all magazines) contained 104 pages of original reading matter, and 42 illustrations.

Everything will be done during 1899 to keep the BOOKMAN the strongest of the literary periodicals.

NOTES IN SEASON.

DODD, MEAD & Co. have just published "The Dreyfus Case," by Fred. C. Conybeare, which is a very full and clear presentment of the matter. Though it is animated by a passionate belief in the innocence of the man on Devil's Island, it is, nevertheless, a cool, exact and patient examination of all the authentic documents and materials of which the author could obtain knowledge. They have also just published "With Kitchener to Khartum," by G. W. Steevens, author of "The Land of the Dollar," etc. The work contains a number of maps and plans.

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY have just published "Highways and Byways in North Wales," by A. G. Bradley; "Angels' Wings," by Edward Carpenter; "Roman Society in the Last Century of the Western Empire," by Samuel Dill; "English Lyrics from Spenser to Milton," with illustrations by Robert Anning

Bell, and introduction by John Dennis; "Songs and Meditations," by Maurice Hewlett; "Observations of a Ranchwoman in New Mexico," by Edith M. Nicholl; also, "The Underground Railroad from Slavery to Freedom," by Wilbur H. Siebert, Associate Professor of European History in the Ohio State University.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS will publish at once "Desiderius Erasmus," by Ephraim Emerton, Professor of Ecclesiastical History in Harvard University, which will form the third volume of the Heroes of the Reformation series. Every effort has been made to present this volume with as attractive and authentic illustrations as possible, and to obtain the proper pictures the British Museum and the gallery in Rotterdam have been searched with much success. They will publish shortly Grant Allen's latest novel, "Miss Cayley's Adventures," which has been running as a serial in The Strand Magazine; "A Life for Liberty," by the Rev. John W. Chadwick, based on the letters of Sallie Holley; also, a book by Major Arthur Griffiths, entitled "Mysteries of the Police and Crime."

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. will publish at once a book containing in one volume all the requirements in English for "careful study" for the years 1900-1902 as prescribed by the Joint Conferences of Colleges and Secondary Schools on Requirements in English for Admission to Colleges. The volume will contain Macaulay's "Essay on Milton"; Milton's "Paradise Lost," Books I.-III.; Milton's "L'Allegro," "Il Penseroso," and other poems; Shakespeare's "Macbeth"; Macaulay's "Life and Writings of Addison"; and Burke's "On Conciliation with the Colonies." The convenience of having in one volume all the English requirements "for careful study" for three years will no doubt make the book attractive to those who have in charge the preparation of students for college, and to others interested in secondary education. These essays and poems are also published in the Riverside series, both in paper and linen covers.

HARPER & BROTHERS have nearly ready some very important books. The eagerly awaited "Letters of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Barrett," with preface by their son R. Barrett Browning, and notes by F. G. Kenyon, explanatory of the Greek words, will be issued in two volumes, and form a most valuable addition to Browning literature. They have also in press "Reminiscences," by Justin McCarthy, in two volumes; "Moscheles' Reminiscences," fragments of the autobiography of Felix Stone Moscheles, the famous English portrait painter, a book full of intimate personal recollections of his godfather Mendelssohn, Joachim, Mazzini, Rossetti, and many others; and "A Thousand Days in the Arctic," by F. G. Jackson, a notable contribution to the literature of Polar research. During the early part of the forthcoming year will be issued "Ragged Lady," by William Dean Howells; "The Awkward Age," a new novel by Henry James, the awkward age being that of its young heroine; "Short Rations," stories by Williston Fish; "The River-Syndicate," short stories by Charles E. Carryl; and "The 'Capsina,'" a historical novel treating of the Greek war of independence in 1820-21, by E. F. Benson, who again introduces some of the most popular characters of his story "The Vintage."

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.*

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.; translations, c. tr.; n. p., in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no price, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

Guy de Fougereuse, a young and gallant knight and the favorite of the good King René of Anjou, buys and inhabits an old hunting lodge called by the peasants the Devil's House, supposed to be haunted. At a tournament King René is taken suddenly ill, and a cousin of Guy's, who is filled with envy and jealousy, accuses Guy of having poisoned the King. De Fougereuse is accused of sorcery and tried for his life, the evidence being many odd details of his life in the Devil's House. His "secret" is brought out at this trial and his enemies confounded.

*Slicer, Rev. T: R. The great affirmations of religion: a book not for beginners, but beginners again. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1898. 12°, cl., $1.50. [4486]

Smith, G: Adam. The life of Henry Drummond. N. Y., Doubleday & McClure Co., 1898. c. 9+541 p. por. O. cl., net, $3. [4487]

Dr. Smith (well known as an eminent professor of Free Church College, Glasgow, and as the author of a number of standard works on theology) was an intimate friend of Professor Drummond. He was chosen by his family and friends to prepare this biography, and to him was turned over many unpublished letters, journals of travel, and a series of new addresses to young men, recently found among Professor Drummond's papers. He succeeds in bringing the man vividly before the reader's eyes, who on account of his quiet modesty and reticence was almost unknown except through his writings. Dr. Smith gives the complete history of the remarkable Evangelical movement which was aroused by the visit of Moody and Sankey in 1873-75, and with which Professor Drummond was so closely identified.

Speer, Rob. E. A memorial of a true life: a biography of Hugh McAllister Beaver. N. Y. and Chic., Fleming H. Revell Co., [1898.] c. 3-308 p. por. D. cl., $1. [4488]

Hugh McAllister Beaver was born in Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, March 29, 1873. He died August 2, 1897. Besides the account of the life and labors of Hugh Beaver in the cause of Christianity, the work of the 1897 young men's and young women's conferences, held at Northfield, is reviewed, and letters of condolence, from many noted people, are included. The material was gathered chiefly from Mr. McAllister's personal papers.

Steevens, G. W. With Kitchener to Khartum. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1898. c. 15+326 p. maps, plans, D. cl., $1.50. [4489]

By the author of "With the conquering Turk" and "Egypt in 1898." The introductory note says: "The marvellous, machine-like precision of the Sirdar's movements is described by Mr. Steevens with accuracy and graphic presentation of detail, but he shows with the same clearness the dark background of delays and blunders and futilities in the years that preceded. . . . He joined the expedition early in 1897, and he toiled along with it to the end. He went through the battles of the Atbara and Omdurman. He entered Khartum with the conquerors, and he saw the raising of the Union Jack on the spot where Gordon fell."

Stickney, J. H., and Hoffmann, Ralph. Bird world: a bird book for children. Bost., Ginn & Co., 1898. c. 8+214 p. il. D. (Study and story nature readers, no. 2.) cl., 70 c. [4490]

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTES.

THE A. L. A. Publishing Section (12½ Beacon Street, Boston,) has issued a 16-page pamphlet containing "Annotated titles of books on English history published in 1897," selected and prepared by W. Dawson Johnston, of Harvard University. The titles, which are intended for use in library catalogues and as a guide in purchasing, are also printed on cards. In the pamphlet they are printed only on one side of the page, thus being available for pasting in catalogues or other use. Twenty-six books are listed, with critical and descriptive annotations, and the selection shows careful comparative work. The present list will be followed by quarterly issues to appear in 1899, listing from fifty to sixty titles of the books of 1898. The length of time between the publication of the books and the issue of the cards will make the annotations of definite critical value, summarizing the opinions of the most important reviews. Subscription to the annotations in pamphlet form is 50 c.; to the cards (3 copies of each title,) $1.25.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

DECEMBER 31, 1898.

Publishers are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of "The American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of all trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE BOOK TRADE IN PORTO RICO.

HITHERTO the accounts of the intellectual capacity of the natives of our new possessions have been anything but favorable. Indeed, newspaper correspondents hitherto, when touching upon the literary output of the Spanish colonies, have been almost unanimous in taking a discouraged and unfavorable view. It is therefore gratifying to have another and more favorable opinion from one who apparently has looked over the situation, in at least one of our recent acquisitions, more carefully than did his predecessors. The correspondent of the Chicago Record recently wrote to his paper that the book shops and printing offices of Porto Rico surprised him by their excellence after he had been disappointed in the newspapers. One dealer in Ponce apologized for his meagre stock of books in English, explaining that the officers and men of the American army had bought almost everything he had. But as he was the agent for D. Appleton & Co., of New York, his stock would be replenished by the first steamer. As it was, several well-known books were on his shelves, and if one wanted to read Spanish the selection was a large one. The correspondent of the Chicago Record found a very good edition of "El Prisonero de Zenda," by Antonio Hope, and it was in this same Bazar Otero that Richard Harding Davis and Stephen Crane were confronted upon their arrival with posters advertising "Soldiers of Fortune" and "The Red Badge of Courage."

In San Juan, the capital, there are said to be at least four book and stationery stores of note which are more than creditable to the place. They are connected with printing and publishing concerns in most cases. They carry books imported from Madrid, Barcelona, and Paris, most of them being in Spanish or French. All the classics of Spain and France are carried in both languages, and the modern French novel occupies a prominent place on the shelves. The novels of Hugo and Dumas are very popular in the island. A few books printed in Italian are sold, but the Italian classics are to be found in Spanish and in French translations. Creditable editions of the "Divina Commedia" of Dante are for sale in Italian and Spanish, but the translations are in prose instead of verse. American poets seem to be unknown, but Byron's popularity is shown by the multitude of his works on sale. "Don Juan" is a favorite, partly, no doubt, because of its Spanish subject and partly because of its literary pungency—a favorite equality among Spanish-Americans, as among the Spanish themselves. The poem suffers, however, like that of Dante, by not having the metrical translation, and it is hard to understand its attractions in this form. German literature is confined to the works of Schiller and Goethe, and the booksellers report that not many of those are sold. Of course, the larger part of the stock in the bookstores is made up of the work of Spanish writers, classic and modern. The people are said to read Cervantes with as much avidity as if he were satirizing the weaknesses of others instead of their own.

Local production of literature, according to the same authority, has taken utilitarian forms in most part, although some modest fiction and a little creditable verse have been written. Historical monographs relating to the island are numerous, and political pamphlets of various sorts even exceed them in number. The historian of Porto Rico in the future will find much valuable matter in the little books that have issued from obscure presses throughout the island.

THE ASSOCIATION OF EMPLOYING BOOKBINDERS, of New York and vicinity, at its last meeting decided upon a measure which, reasonable as it is, will be regarded as a hardship by the smaller publishing houses. For years the storing, care, and keeping records of surplus sheet and other stock has become so burdensome that in some establishments the item of expense involved threatened loss, if it did not actually cause loss, to the binders of edition work. Some of the larger binderies have been paying $2500 or more a year for no other purpose than for room for carrying, free of charge, sheet stock for their customers, representing, in some cases, an amount in excess of the earnings on the binding done for owners of such stock.

By actual measurement it is demonstrated that 1000 sheets of an average twelvemo of twenty signatures make a pile of sheets six feet high, and take up, with the necessary passages, twelve square feet of floor space. The average rent of binderies in New York approximates fifty cents a square foot a year. One thousand twelvemo books in sheets therefore impose upon the binder a tax of $6 a year for rent.

After careful investigation the association has learned that as a rule one-quarter—in some cases one-third—of bindery area is occupied by dead sheet stock, or stock for which orders to bind come at long intervals only, if at all. To estimate how onerous and expensive this burden is, it need only be remembered how much floor space, under the most favorable conditions, a bindery naturally requires in which to do work, and how high the rents are in well-appointed buildings in a fairly central location. The association, therefore, has decided that after January 1, 1899, a monthly charge will be made to owners of stock at the rate of 50 cents a square foot (including aisle space) a year, on all sheet and other stock that was delivered to them before January 1, 1898. No charge will be made against new stock received on and after January 1, 1899, until the expiration of a year from the date of receiving the stock.

FOR FREE PAPER AND PULP.

THE Board of Directors of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association has forwarded a brief to the United States and British Joint High Commissioners asking for the removal of tariff duties on paper and wood pulp. After setting forth that the Directors of the association represent 157 daily newspapers of this country, the brief requests the American Commissioners "to advocate the inclusion of free paper and free pulp in the adjustment of our relations with Canada." It then continues:

"The present tariff rate on printing paper, unsized, sized, or glued, suitable for books and newspapers, valued at not above 2 cents per pound, is three-tenths of a cent per pound, or $6 per ton. The tariff rate on mechanically ground wood pulp is one-twelfth of a cent per pound, or $1.67 per ton.

"During the year ended June 30, 1898, the paper manufacturers of the United States exported 53,718 tons of printing paper (news and book,) valued at $2,702,351, an average of 1000 tons per week. No paper for news printing is brought into the United States.

"The total importations of wood pulp in the twelve months ended June 30, 1898 (according to The Paper Mill of August 11, 1898,) were 29,846 tons, valued at $601,642, against 41,707 tons in 1897, valued at $800,886. The entire revenue received from the importation of mechanically ground wood pulp last year was $41,842, and, as no news paper was imported, therefore no serious question of national economy or threatening deficits could be urged in opposition to free pulp and free paper.

"The tariff on paper is prohibitory and the rate for wood pulp is excessive. The American paper manufacturers need no protection, because they can manufacture paper cheaper than is done in any other part of the world. The American manufacturers are protected to the extent of $1.60 per ton by reason of their proximity to their customers. American manufacturers are now supplying the Australian and Japanese markets and are underselling the British, Swedish, and German manufacturers in the British markets.

"In January, 1898, all the big and profitable paper mills of the United States, with a few unimportant exceptions, were merged into the International Paper Company, a combination that absorbed twenty-four mills, producing about 80 per cent. of the entire American output. This corporation, or trust, was capitalized upon a basis of $55,000,000, divided as follows: Bonds, $10,000,000; preferred stock, $25,000,000; common stock, $20,000,000.

"The pretext given for the organization of the trust was the inability of the mills to make paper at prevailing prices—that bankruptcy stared them in the face. This combination was really formed to protect the proprietors whose mills were in poor localities, or on streams that were running dry.

"One mill included in this combination (Rumford Falls) made profits of $488,000 in forty-four months on a capital of $500,000, and entered the trust on a basis that yielded $4.50 for every dollar of original investment, so that in forty-four months the total return on an investment of $500,000 was $2,750,000. Yet that mill was in such poor shape when acquired by the trust that an enormous outlay was necessary to bring it into condition. Another mill averaged profits of from 32 per cent. to 48 per cent. per annum, and took $4 in trust securities for every one dollar of its stock.

"The organizers of the trust frankly admitted at the outset that its common stock represented only good will, yet a quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. on the common stock was declared in November, payable December 31, 1898. Immediately after the organization of the trust, it raised the price of paper wherever possible. In three cases it raised its price ten dollars per ton, and has averaged an increase of $5 per ton on its daily output of 1420 tons, equalling an increased tax of $2,130,000 per annum upon the newspapers of the country, which now pay a total exceeding $20,000,000 per annum for their paper supply.

"A reciprocal arrangement with Canada for free paper and free pulp is advisable to ensure the continuance of the present supply of free logs from Canada. The threatened retaliatory export duty upon logs to be imposed by Canada would ultimately fall upon the newspaper consumer. The present consumption of pulp wood by the pulp and paper mills of the United States, including manila, book and writing, is stated upon authority of The Paper Maker, a paper trade journal, at 2,000,000 cords per annum, which consumption requires the entire stripping of pulp timber on 625 square miles per annum.

"Our spruce wood supply is limited. We therefore urge that the Commission should take advantage of the present opportunity and immediately secure a sufficient supply of spruce freed from tariff complications.

"Every increase of a quarter cent. per pound in the price of news paper adds $34,000,000 to the value of the trust securities. While the enlistment of capital in American enterprises may exercise a slightly deterrent influence on the Paper Trust, the effect cannot be material because the trust owns the largest and best powers in localities where spruce wood is cheap, and from which transportation is prompt and cheap. A successful and energetic competition cannot be maintained within the United States. The outside mills that do or can make paper are not equipped for the economical manufacture of news paper. We must look to Canada and the foreign countries where ground wood can be produced at a cost of $7.50 per ton, and where news paper can be produced for one cent. per pound. Free paper is therefore the only strong and permanent assurance of protection from this combination.

"The Commissioners should consider whether they are justified in furnishing protection to a combination organized in restraint of trade and intended to extort excessive prices from a representative industry. The question of protection or free trade has nothing to do with the question of free paper or free pulp. The tariff duties on these articles have been availed of by a monopoly to obtain an unfair advantage, and the issue is not one of revenue. The duties are not needed to protect any paper or pulp mill in competition with foreign rivals.

"The duty on paper stops cheap books and cheap newspapers. It taxes intelligence because the newspapers are the people's school and their library. All taxes upon paper are taxes upon reading, upon knowledge, upon the dissemination of information. Under any government such a tax would be oppressive and proscriptive. In a government based as ours is, upon the intelligence and resultant virtue of the people, it is anomalous and monstrous. To make newspapers artificially dear is wantonly to restrict the number of readers and so increase the sum of ignorance. When this is done or proposed, simply to add to the profits of a monopoly, the injury to public interests becomes a matter demanding the intervention of the Government."

BENJAMIN W. BOND RETIRES FROM THE CENTURY CO.

AFTER fifteen years of almost unremitting labor at the head of the subscription department of the Century Company, Benjamin W. Bond withdraws into private life to enjoy for the remainder of his days a long-needed and certainly a well-earned rest. He will go abroad January 3, by the Kaiser Wilhelm, and spend a year or two in travel as a preparation for more systematic loafing when he gets back to his Brooklyn home.

Mr. Bond was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., October 21, 1837, and is a graduate of the New York University. He began his connection with the book business as bookkeeper in Bradstreets' printing office. Leaving Bradstreet's, he became a member of the printing and publishing firm of Moorhead, Simpson & Bond, which afterwards became Moorhead, Bond & Co., who published medical books chiefly.

About 1870 Mr. Bond became the New York agent for T. Ellwood Zell, of Philadelphia, with whom he had close business relations for nearly fourteen years. This connection with Zell gave Mr. Bond his first experience in the subscription-book line, and for the first four or five years he devoted his entire time to the sale of Zell's subscription-books. Later he became general agent in the metropolitan district for Bryant's "History of the United States," with which he was eminently successful. He was also agent for Prang's "Native Flowers and Ferns of the United States," for the publications of S. E. Cassino, James R. Osgood & Co., and Henry Holt & Co., and for a time acted as general agent for Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s illustrated edition of Longfellow's works, all of which he handled to the satisfaction of his principals and with profit to himself.

Early in 1883 he was invited by the Century Company to organize their subscription-book department. The regular book department was established at the same time, and Mr. Bond became the head of both, a position he has held until the present time. Although the Century Company has made but four or five subscription-books, the business in them has been almost monumental, while the miscellaneous business has reached large proportions also.

Mr. Bond has always sold books of high literary merit, and has steadfastly refused to deal in others. He prides himself on having always done a clean subscription-book business and on having maintained the best traditions of the trade.

Through his many connections and his uniformly courteous and pleasant manner, Mr. Bond, has made many friends in the book business, all of whom will be pleased to hear that his labors have not been unrewarded and that he is enabled, while still in his prime, to enjoy a life of leisure that seldom falls to the lot of his countrymen. It is to be hoped he may enjoy it for many years to come.

BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATIONS.

BANQUET OF BROTHERHOOD OF COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS held its fourteenth annual banquet on the evening of the 28th inst., at the Hotel Marlborough, Broadway and Thirty-sixth Street, New York. Owing to illness and business engagements, many members of the Brotherhood were absent. Among this number was the President, H. M. Caldwell, who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. At about half past eight o'clock thirty-five members of the B. C. T. and their friends took seats at nine tables, four being seated at the smaller tables and the remainder at the guests' table. At each plate was a pretty menu card, furnished by Powers & Stein, and an etching entitled "Inseparable," showing a "drummer" with his grip in one hand and the other resting on a magnum, while hovering over the two, in dainty outline, appears the head of the "drummer's" sweetheart. Other souvenirs were a card-case of black sealskin, also a bottle of Canada Club Whiskey, presented by Hiram Walker & Sons, of Ontario, Canada.

John Hovendon acted as chairman and toastmaster. After the dinner had been served, Mr. Hovendon called attention to the fact that, owing to changes in business conditions, many of the members of the B. C. T. were obliged to make trips even earlier than ever, and that for this reason it might become necessary in the future to change the date of the dinner, and, possibly, the form of entertainment. His regrets at the absence of the President of the Brotherhood were warmly seconded by all present, and Mr. Caldwell's health was drunk standing. The chairman also announced that Messrs. Munn & Co., through their agent, Mr. Brickelmeier, had, as usual, presented to the Brotherhood a check for $50 and a consignment of magnums of their wine. The Gaylord Cigar Co. also again presented a lot of their cigars.

Telegrams and letters of regret were read from C. W. Sherman, John H. Black, and J. A. McQuillan. Mr. McQuillan's condition, we regret to learn, is hopeless. Though he has recovered partially from the paralytic stroke which he received a few years ago in Chicago, it is not likely that he will recover his sight. The night was spent by the members in informal speechmaking. Henry N. Morgan favored the company with a number of songs acceptably sung. Before the gathering broke up, W. J. Kelly, of the Souvenir Committee, presented the insignia conferred upon the retiring president—an ivory gavel, suspended in the case from a red, white, and blue watered-silk ribbon. Clarence A. Caldwell received the token in the name of his brother. With the singing of "Vive la Compagnie," the gathering broke up.

THE NEW ENGLAND SCHOOL-BOOK MEN.

THE NEW ENGLAND SCHOOL-BOOK MEN is the permanent name chosen by the travelling representatives of the school-book houses at their dinner at Young's Hotel, Boston, December 12. Simple by-laws were adopted, providing for an annual winter meeting and dinner, and continuing the form of the temporary organization. H. I. Smith, of Maynard, Merrill & Co., was elected president, and J. R. McDonald, of The Macmillan Company, secretary and treasurer. An executive committee will be appointed by the president.

The guest of the evening was the Hon. Harrison Hume, who spoke in a reminiscent vein and gave entertaining sketches of the ups and downs of a bookman's life twenty-five years ago. Other speakers were: A. H. Kenerson, of Ginn & Co.; F. A. Fitzpatrick, of The American Book Co.; E. C. McClintock, of Silver, Burdett & Co.; G. H. G. McGrew, of The University Publishing Co.; J. J. Lyons, of Sheldon & Co.; W. H. H. Bryant and Wm. Tappan, of Ginn & Co.; and E. F. De Normandie, of Thomas R. Shewell & Co.

A PLEASANT little dinner was given by the staff of the Fleming H. Revell Company on the evening of Tuesday last, at which the guest of honor was Louis E. Turk, who, after having been in the employ of the above concern for the past eight years, is now about to sever his connection and assume the management of the Board of the Reformed Church in New York City. The occasion was especially auspicious as being the eve of Mr. Turk's marriage to Miss Edith Morgan, which happy event occurred at St. Stephen's Church, Wednesday, December 28, at 4 P.M. Short speeches were made by Mr. Briggs, manager of the New York house, by Mr. Turk, and by Wm. H. Wooster, who was for many years with Revell, and now returns to accept Mr. Turk's vacated position.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

THE BIOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

A DINNER was given on the evening of the 21st inst. at the Metropolitan Club, New York, by Colonel Johnston L. De Peyster to his associates in the recently incorporated Biographical Society of America. After the dinner the first meeting of the society was held, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Colonel Johnston L. De Peyster; first vice-president, Walter Rutherford; second vice-president, James Duane Livingston; treasurer, Augustin H. Goelet; recorder, Samuel Marsh.

The society is fortunate in the selection of its officers. Its president is the son of Major-General J. Watts de Peyster and the great-grandson of Robert Livingston. He himself was breveted colonel and received a vote of thanks from the city of New York in recognition of his services when serving on General Weitzel's staff in placing the first United States flag over Richmond in April, 1865. He has twice been a member of the New York Legislature, lives in summer in Tivoli-on-the-Hudson, and in winter in Washington, and is a member of many leading clubs and societies. Mr. Rutherford is a banker; Mr. James Duane Livingston is the trust officer of the North American Trust Company; Dr. Augustin H. Goelet is a practising physician, and Mr. Marsh is a retired lawyer, upon whom the University of Virginia recently conferred the Doctorate of Laws.

It is proposed to form a nucleus for all the American biographical and genealogical societies, and concentrate them in one national association. The future and policy of the institution will be outlined at the next meeting.

AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

THE AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION held its seventh annual meeting at Philadelphia on the 26th inst., with a large and representative gathering of Jewish scholars and writers. The following papers were read: "Contributions to the History of the Jews in Suranim," by Prof. Gotthell; "Some Early American Jewish Composers, Musicians, and Actors," by Max Kohler, of New York; "Mexican Jewish History," by the Rev. Dr. H. P. Mendes, of New York; "A Noted Jewish Burgher of New Amsterdam," by Leon Huhner, of New York; "The Jews of Jamaica," by Oscar S. Straus (read by Max Kohler); and "Notes on Jewish Cemeteries in New York," by Miss Elvira N. Solis, of New York. Simon W. Rosendale presented the report of the Committee on Dutch Records.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Cyrus Adler, Washington; Vice-Presidents, Simon W. Rosendale, Albany; Mendes Cohen, Baltimore; Prof. Charles Gross, Boston; and Prof. Herbert B. Adams, Baltimore; Treasurer, Prof. Richard Gotthell, New York; Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Herbert Friedenwald, Washington; Recording Secretary, Dr. J. H. Hollander, Baltimore; Executive Council, Oscar S. Straus, the Rev. Dr. B. Felsenthal, Prof. Morris Jastrow, jr., Mayer Sulzberger, N. Taylor Phillips, Simon Wolf, Max J. Kohler, John Samuel, the Rev. Dr. David Philipson, and the Rev. Henry Cohen.

THE DISAPPOINTED AUTHORS' CLUB.

THE DISAPPOINTED AUTHORS' CLUB has just been formed in Philadelphia. It is composed of only such persons as can produce large numbers of unsold manuscripts. Under no circumstances would a successful author be permitted to join. As soon as a member begins to sell his stories he will be regarded with disfavor by the club. All rejected manuscripts are to be read by the writers before the club, and at the conclusion of the reading the literary judgment and the character of the editor who returned them are to be assailed.

GESELLSCHAFT DER BIBLIOPHILEN.

As was predicted a few weeks ago, a society of German book-lovers has been formed with Victor Ottmann, 54 Theresien Str., Munich, Bavaria, as secretary. The new society will bear the name of Gesellschaft der Bibliophilen. The plans of the society include publishing of literary monographs, bibliographies, and reprints of rare literary productions; a bureau of bibliographical information; arranging for auction sales of books and art objects; and the making of contracts in behalf of its members with international literary and art societies. The organ of the society will be the Zeitschrift für Bücherfreunde. The society already numbers forty members, among whom we note Karl Junker, Johannes Klasing, Dr. F. Lippmann, Dr. Paul Lindau, Otto Mühlbrecht, and Fedor von Zobelitz.

OBITUARY NOTES.

CAROLINE SPENCER, a poet, known, perhaps, better by her pseudonym, "Carl Spencer," died at her home in Catskill, N. Y., on the 20th inst.

MRS. ISABEL A. MALLON, author of "Bab's Babble," and known also by the pseudonym of "Ruth Ashmore," died from pneumonia on the 27th inst. at her residence, 475 Fourth Avenue, New York. She began writing "Bab" letters in 1888, and continued until a few weeks before her illness. Under the name of "Ruth Ashmore" she wrote a series of letters, entitled "Side Talks with Girls," for The Ladies' Home Journal.

GEORGE LEARY, for years bookbuyer for John Wanamaker, subsequently in the employ of the Syndicate Trading Company, and, until recently, again with Wanamaker, committed suicide on the 22d inst. at the Florence Hotel, 208 Eighth Avenue, New York, by drinking carbolic acid. He was forty-three years old. He left a note which read: "I am G. Leary. Notify my wife, 131 West Thirty-fifth Street." Leary had been off duty for a week past, and had been drinking.

GEORGES RODENBACH, the Belgian author, died in Paris on the 24th inst. He was born July 16, 1855, in Tournai, Belgium, and early in life wrote verses. After he had written "La Belgique" (1881), a historical poem, and several others, he made his home at Paris. There he wrote his most important work in verse, "La Règne du Silence," in 1891. He wrote also "Bruges la Morte," "Musée de Béguines" (1894), a novel entitled "La Vocation" (1895), and the collection of poems called "Les Vies Encloses" (1896.) At the Comédie Française he had produced his one-act play in verse, "Le Voile," which he wrote in 1895. He was on the staff of the Figaro up to the time of his death, and did much literary work for that newspaper.

ANDREW ALLEN BONNER, eldest son of Robert Bonner, the founder of the New York Ledger, died on the 27th inst. at his residence, 21 East Sixty-fourth Street, New York, after a week's illness, from pneumonia. Mr. Bonner was born in Brooklyn, where his parents then lived, in 1851. About 1870 he began his business career, when his father took him into the office of the New York Ledger. He devoted himself mainly to the commercial department of the Ledger, thereby relieving his father of much of the routine of the office work of the establishment. He remained in charge of this branch of the paper until 1887, when Robert Bonner retired into private life, at the same time turning the Ledger and building it occupied over to his three sons, who formed a partnership under the name of Robert Bonner's Sons. Allen then became the treasurer of the new firm, and continued so until his death.

COMMUNICATIONS.

MR. GRANT WARNS THE TRADE.

SHOULD the following books be offered to you for sale, telegraph me and hold the party, as the books have been stolen from me:

Limited and numbered edition of Smollett's works, six volumes, morocco, [Routledge,] out of print.

Monte Cristo, five volumes, morocco, édition de luxe.

F. E. GRANT,
23 W. 42d St., New York.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

D. C. HEATH & Co. have in press "Der Letzte," one of the stories in a collection called "Kinderthänen," by Wildenbruch. The story will be furnished with an introduction and notes by Prof. F. G. G. Schmidt, of the University of Oregon.

F. TENNYSON NEELY has just published "The Child's History of the War with Spain"; also "Bismarck: His Life and Times," by Ferdinand Sonnenberg, translated by Miss Grace H. Webb and Miss Ida L. Saxon. He announces a new edition of Julius Chambers's "The Ras-cal Club."

GINN & Co. have just ready "Physical Geography," by William Morris Davis, assisted by William Henry Snyder, master in science in Worcester, Mass., a book intended for elementary instruction, describing the earth's physical features as they make an environment for man, and making clear its teachings by carefully made reference maps.

HERBERT COPELAND and F. H. Day, of Boston, Mass., have privately printed, for distribution among their friends, as a memento of the Christmas season, "The Sermon to the Birds, and The Wolf of Gubbio," being part of chapter xvi. and the entire chapter xxi. of the Fioretti di San Francesco, translated out of the thirteenth century Italian by Louise Imogen Guiney.

RICHARD G. BADGER & Co., Boston, announce a book by one of Roosevelt's "Rough Riders," with the somewhat lengthy title of "Pepys's Ghost; His Wanderings in Greater Gotham and His Adventures in the Spanish War, Together With His Minor Exploits on the Field of Love and Fashion, With His Thoughts Thereon." If the "Ghost" is as eloquent as the worthy author of the "Diary" was in real life, the result ought to prove entertaining.

AFTER ten years of litigation, Frank Sanger, the theatrical manager, has, by a recent decision of the Court of Appeals, in his suit against Thomas Henry French, established his claim, under a verbal agreement of partnership, to one-half of about $125,000, the net profits of producing the play "Little Lord Fauntleroy" in cities, not including Boston and New York, about the year 1888. Daniel G. Rollins, who tried the case as referee, found on all the issues in favor of the plaintiff.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO. have ready "Historic Homes of the Southwest Mountains, Virginia," by Edward C. Mead, author of "The Genealogical History of the Lee Family of Virginia and Maryland." The section of country covered has been the birthplace of presidents, governors, and statesmen, as well as the seat of a refined and hospitable people. The book describes the homes of the Jeffersons, Randolphs, Everetts, Chanlers, Riveses, and others, and twenty-three illustrations and a map illuminate the interesting text.

LONGMANS, GREEN & CO. announce a book entitled "The 'Perverse Widow,' Being Passages from the Life of Catharina, Wife of William Boevey, Esq., of Flaxley Abbey, in the County of Gloucester," compiled by Arthur W. Crawley-Boevey, of the Bombay Civil Service. The work is illustrated with family portraits, among them being the "Perverse Widow" herself; also those of the deprived Nonjuring Bishops Frampton and Ken, Dr. George Hicks, and the Rev. John Lloyd, by Hogarth. Among the pedigrees in the appendix is that of Izaak Walton. They will publish early in February next a new novel by S. Levett-Yeats, author of "The Chevalier d'Auriac," entitled "The Heart of Dénise."

THE REV. JAMES BRITAIN MILLER, the Yale graduate who was arrested at New Haven, Conn., on the 22d inst. charged with stealing 5,000 books, is regarded as a criminal curiosity by the police and by the clergymen of the city. Miller is an intellectual young man, about thirty years old, and stood high in his classes at the Yale Divinity School, where he was graduated four years ago. Since then he has preached irregularly. He is the son of a Michigan business man, but he has made New Haven his residence since he went there to college. While at Yale Miller had charge of the reading-room of the Yale Theological Seminary, and there, it is supposed, his uncontrollable desire for books was developed. His counsel declares that Miller's case is a psychological study, that his researches in libraries unsettled his mind, and that he could not keep away from bookstores nor abstain from grabbing the books when nobody was looking. Miller said on the evening of his arrest that he took the books in fits of absent-mindedness. The leading booksellers of the city have been engaged every day since Miller's arrest in sorting out their stolen books from the thousands at Miller's rooms. He furnished bonds for $500 and was released.

FOREIGN NOTES.

JOHN LONG, London, will publish in March next Robert Buchanan's new novel, which will probably be called "The New Don Quixote."

SAMPSON LOW, MARSTON & CO. will publish next year—possibly not until the fall—Sir Herbert Maxwell's exhaustive "Life of the Duke of Wellington."

JOHN LANE will publish shortly a selection of Aubrey Beardsley's drawings from The Yellow Book and elsewhere. Portraits of the artist and a prefatory note by H. C. Marillier will form parts of the contents.

AT a philatelic exhibition just opened at Birmingham there are on view the two most valuable stamps in the world—a penny and a twopenny Mauritius. Only twenty-three specimens of the 1848 Mauritius stamp are known to exist, and the market value of the two on exhibition at Birmingham is $10,500. They belong to a Parisian collector, who has loaned them for the exhibition.

RENÉ CHAMBOLLE announces that he has become the proprietor of the bookbindery established by Duru and conducted for forty years by his late father, Victor Chambolle, under the firm-name of Chambolle-Duru. René Chambolle has been for a number of years connected with his father's bindery, and will no doubt make good his promise to maintain the reputation of the establishment for good and artistic work.

THE six days' sale of early manuscripts and early printed books, the property of the late Mr. William Morris, realized £10,962. The "Sherbrook Missal," an illuminated manuscript of the early fourteenth century, produced £350; a twelfth century manuscript of the New Testament (Latin Vulgate,) £225; and a fourteenth century manuscript of Virgil's "Georgica et Ænesi," £164. The specimens of early typography also commanded good prices.

WILLIAM BLACKWOOD & SONS will shortly publish a new novel by Beatrice Harraden, author of "Ships that pass in the night." Her original intention for a title was a line of William Watson's, "I, too, have come through wintry terrors." They have nearly ready a work entitled, "The Pure Literature of the Nineteenth Century," by Logie Robertson, whose pseudonym is "Hugh Haliburton." Mr. Robertson is preparing for the Blackwoods a new edition of his previous book, "Horace in Homespun," with many new pieces.

ULRICO HOEPLI, of Milan, has just issued the second and concluding volume of Dr. G. A. Scartazzini's "Enciclopedia Dantesca," a dictionary of all that pertains to the life and works of Dante; and a third edition of "La Divina Commedia," edited by Scartazzini, with corrections and annotations and an exhaustive index to proper names and important subjects, besides a list of the perfect rhymes of Dante, compiled by Dr. Luigi Polacco and arranged alphabetically according to final syllables. This is considered to be the best edition of Dante's work, the editor being acknowledged throughout the world as a final authority on Dante.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted," subscribers only are entitled to a free insertion of five lines for books out of print, exclusive of address (in any issue except special numbers), to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents per line, and amount should be enclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents per line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents per line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

Under the heading "Situations Wanted," subscribers are entitled to one free insertion of five lines. For repeated matter and advertisements of non-subscribers the charge is 10 cents per line.

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents per nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

Parties desiring to receive answers to their advertisements through this office must either call for them or enclose postage stamps with their orders for the insertion of such advertisements. In all cases we must have the full address of advertisers, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

BOOKS WANTED.

In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

Houses that are willing to deal only on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash].

Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly," does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay," booksellers should take the usual precaution, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to any unknown parties.

The Annual American Catalogue, 1898

THE ANNUAL AMERICAN CATALOGUE for 1898 will contain:

- (1) Directory of American Publishers issuing books in 1898.
- (2) Full-title Record, with descriptive notes, in author alphabet, of all books recorded in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, 1898.
- (3) Author-, title-, and subject-index to same, in one alphabet.
- (4) Publishers' annual lists for 1898.

This volume forms the FOURTH ANNUAL SUPPLEMENT to the AMERICAN CATALOGUE, 1890-95.

One volume, if ordered before date of publication, half leather, $3.00; in sheets, $2.50.

After publication the price will be raised to half leather, $3.50; in sheets, $3.00.

The edition, as usual, is a limited one. The volumes for 1890 to 1893 are all out of print, and orders for those of 1894, 1895, 1896, and 1897, to ensure supply, should be promptly filed. THE ANNUAL ENGLISH CATALOGUE, for which we have the American market, now includes full title entries, after the manner of the American volume, instead of the previous abbreviated entries. It will be furnished at $1.50 paper, or bound with the American in one volume, half leather, at $5.00, net.

The Annual Literary Index, 1898

Including Periodicals, American and English; Essays, Book-Chapters, etc.; with Author-Index, Bibliographies, Necrology, and Index to Dates of principal Events. Edited by W. I. FLETCHER and R. R. BOWKER, with the co-operation of members of the American Library Association and of the Library Journal staff.

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX complements the "Annual American Catalogue" of books, published each year, by indexing (1) articles in periodicals published during the year of its issue; (2) essays and book-chapters in composite books; (3) authors of periodical articles and essays; (4) special bibliographies; (5) authors deceased; (6) dates of principal events during the year. The two volumes together make a complete record of the literary product of the year.

"Of great value to all who would keep advised of the topics and writers in the periodical literature of the day."—Universalist Quarterly.

"Good indexing could no further go."—The Nation.

One vol., cloth, $3.50.
